ABSTRACT

This directory lists 866 out of an estimated 1,000 public, academic, special, state agency, and county law libraries in California for fiscal year 1988-1989. The directory section lists libraries alphabetically by name within each city and provides the organization and library name; address; population or number of persons served; statement whether the library is open to the public; number of outlets for public libraries; statement of interlibrary loans and photocopy policies; name of library director; telephone number; electronic mail and telefacsimile units; hours of service; a brief listing of system and network memberships; and the short form of the library name which is given in the index and used in the companion statistics volume, California Library Statistics. While the directory listings make up the major part of this report, information is also provided on the organization of the California State Library (i.e., state library supervising staff, collections and services, California Library Services Board); abbreviations used in the directory; a map showing the geographic locations of the California library systems; library associations, networks, and systems; and California public libraries. A library index provides an alphabetical list of libraries by short form name with cross references to the full name and the city of location. (MAB)

Library Directory Listings

Each year the State Library sends annual report forms to California's academic, public, special, state agency and county law libraries. Directory information from those reports is compiled for this publication, with statistical tabulations published in the companion volume, California Library Statistics. Although the statistics program and these publications are promoted as widely as we can, participation for most is voluntary (public libraries are required by the Education Code to report to the State Librarian) and some choose not to do so. This makes the state summaries and directory less than complete. Libraries failing to return the report form two years in a row are dropped from the free publications distribution list. California cooperates with the National Center for Education Statistics in the collection of uniform public library data nationwide.

For fiscal year 1988-1989 we list 866 libraries. We estimate there are at least 1,000 libraries in operation in California, exclusive of school libraries, so data in these publications are about 86% complete. By type of library, the number reporting are:

168 public libraries with 3,031 public service points. By jurisdictions, there are 48 county, 105 city, four combined city-county, and 11 district public libraries. This year, King City Library merged with Monterey County Library, reducing the number of city libraries and the total of library jurisdictions. The four city-county libraries are Riverside, Sacramento, Santa Cruz, and Stockton-San Joaquin County. Public libraries by level of service are:

162 main libraries. Administrative headquarters are not included, and some county or district libraries have no main library.

604 branch libraries. A branch is an extension library open some part of each of five days a week, has at least 1,400 square feet of floor space, a general book collection of at least 7,000 volumes, and is staffed with the equivalent of at least one librarian and one clerical employee during hours open for service.

326 library stations. A station is a library structure smaller than a branch, providing a lower level of service.

1,872 mobile library stops. A mobile library stop is a location visited by a bookmobile or other traveling library. There are 67 mobile libraries operated by 49 libraries.

Combining main, branch, station and bookmobile figures, there are 1,159 public library outlets.

Emeryville and Piedmont are included with Oakland.
Glenn County is served by Orland and Willows city libraries.
Hillsborough is served by Burlingame and San Mateo city libraries.
Mariposa Co. is included with Tuolumne Co.
Santa Barbara Co. is served by the three city libraries of Lompoc,
Santa Barbara and Santa Maria.
Sierra Co. is included with Plumas Co.

192 academic libraries:

28 state supported academic libraries.

105 community college libraries.

59 private academic libraries.

447 special libraries:

36 legal libraries.

80 medical libraries.

123 libraries operated by for profit organizations.

75 libraries operated by non-profit organizations.

17 popular libraries at U.S. armed forces installations.

18 special libraries at U.S. installations.

40 resident libraries at state institutions and schools.

34 special libraries at state government offices.

24 branch libraries of academic institutions.

58 county law libraries.

Included under special libraries are 45 operated by the federal government and 89 operated by the state government.

The directory section contains name and address information as supplied by the libraries on their annual report. Wherever possible, information has been updated to final copy deadline, August 1990. Directory listings are alphabetical by city. Within a city, they are alphabetical by name of library, or name of organization operating the library. Alphabetical arrangement is letter by letter, not word by word.

In the left column of a listing is the organization and library name; street address; (mailing address if separate); ZIP code; population or persons served; statement if library is open to the public; number of outlets for public libraries; and statement of interlibrary loan and photocopy policies.

In the right column is the name of the library director; telephone and other communications such as OnTyme electronic mail and FAX (telefacsimile) units; hours of service; and brief listing of system and network memberships.

The last element on the right [in brackets] is the library short form name. The short name is given in the index and used in the tables in California Library Statistics. The short name is unique, so is a convenient means of distinguishing between libraries of similar name. Most entries are concluded by the letter or number symbol indicating where data for the library is found in the companion statistics volume.

The index is arranged alphabetically letter by letter, not word by word. Academic, public and special libraries are entered by the short form names used on statistical tables. The full name and directory listing is found under the city of location.

California State Library

The State Library is California's public research library helping a diverse people and their libraries meet their knowledge and information needs. The Library carries out this mission by helping people directly, by helping the libraries that serve them and by advocating a public policy that encourages access to information and library materials. Ways in which the Library meets these service goals include programs to provide library services to the Legislature, state agencies and administration; to administer state and federal financial aid to public libraries; to provide consulting and interlibrary services in backup of local libraries; to collect and preserve library materials on California and the West; and to offer special client services to disadvantaged and physically disabled citizens.

The California State Library was established in 1850 by the first Legislature. The State Librarian is appointed by the Governor and administers the State Library. State Library services are provided from two bureaus, each directed by a chief of service reporting to the State Librarian. Library Development Services Bureau is the field arm, including consultants and specialists who work with state institutions, public libraries and systems throughout the state, and local government officials and citizen groups. State Library Services Bureau provides library services to state government and to public libraries throughout the state. The Information Technology Coordinator who oversees the Library Automation Office reports to the State Librarian. Additional sections, supporting library administration, report to the Assistant State Librarian.

The State Library is housed in five locations:

Administration and most services:	Library & Courts Building 914 Capitol Mall (PO Box 942837, CA 94237) Sacramento, CA 95814
On-site services for State Capitol:	Capitol Branch State Capitol, Room 2019 Sacramento, CA 95814
Blind and physically disabled services:	Braille and Talking Book Library 600 Broadway Sacramento, CA 95818
Technical assistance to libraries:	Library Development Services Ramona Building 1001 Sixth St., Suite 300 Sacramento, CA 95814
Sutro Library collections: (north campus of San Francisco State University)	Sutro Library 480 Winston Drive San Francisco, CA 94132

The collections and services of the State Library are available to all, for in-library use. Materials are circulated to anyone in the state through local libraries by means of interlibrary loan. State officers and employees may borrow materials directly.

Collections of the State Library

The book collection is a research collection selected to meet the information needs of state government and all Californians by providing information and materials not in their local libraries. Strengths are in the wide-ranging areas of concern to California's government, including but not limited to:

- the economy, business and industry
- education
- natural resources and development
- government and political science
- the social sciences
- technology and the applied sciences
